THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 1.

Honesty. - At a party one evening, several contested the honor of having done the most extraordinary thing; a reverend gentleman was appointed judge of their respective pretentions. One produced a tailor's bill with a receipt attached to it. A buzz went through the room.
"The palm is his," was the cry, when another put in his claim. "Gentlemen," said he, "I cannot boast of the feats of my predecessors, but I have returned to the owners two umbrellas that they left at my house."

"I'll hear no more," cried the astonished arbitrator. "This is the very acme. The "Hold!" cried another, "I have done still more than that."

"Impossible!" cried the whole company. "Let us hear." "I have been taking my paper for twenty years, and have paid for it every year in advance." He took the prize.

FIRE IN THE MOUNTAINS. - One of the grandest scenes a man can behold in a lifetime is a mountain range on fire. You see the long line full of fiery tongues that lap up the leaves and well-dried timber, now and then mounting many feet high, shedding a light over many miles, and lighting up the tall peaks of neigh-boring mountains. Whenever what is called "light'ood" in old Virginia is struck by the fire, of course there is a great flame, as though the flames were being lighted on their way. This "light'ood" is the heart of dead pine, which lies on the ground for years without decaying, being preserved by the rosin that's in it. Remarkable objects in the sea of fire are the tall, dead trees on fire. The flames climb to their tops, and they stand like martyrs among trees doomed to death by fire. Their limbs stand out in the expression of agony and invocation. -

HEALTH REGULATIONS.

Passage. Passed July 10th, 1865.

The citizens are requested in case of any negligence on the part of the drivers of the garbage carts to call at their houses, to leave their names and the number of their residences with any member of the Board of Trustees of the Poor. This will ensure a prompt and certain remedy for the inattention complained of.

The citizens are also respectfully requested to remove immediately from their respective premises all offal matter, manure or any other nui-sance which may endanger the health of the city; and they are hereby notified that on or before the first of August the members of the Board will visit their respective districts, to see wheth-er these regulations have been complied with.

The citizens are also respectfully requested to keep this notice for future reference so that they may see who are the members of the Board and the location of their respective districts, and they are asked as a favor this: that when they are personally cognizant of any nuisance to report at once to the proper authorities, viz: the members of the Board in whose districts the nuisance exists, assuring them that it is the only legitimate way to abate any evil existing near their premises.
